PORTLAND, MAINE

Portland — a historic seacoast town and Maine's largest city with a great vibe, working waterfront, loads of galleries, hundreds of one-of-a-kind shops, and award-winning restaurants.

200 Brackett/54 Pine Street is located in the West End Historic District of Portland which is home to several 19th and early 20th century, classic New England-style homes. The Western Promenade, a grassy walkway with views of the Fore River and White Mountains, creates a beautiful, natural boundary for this historic neighborhood. The property is also within walking distance to the city's Waterfront and Arts Districts, two areas that provide year-round shopping, dining and entertainment for tourists and locals alike.
